McClendon et al.

NAME (please print): _____

Directions: This library adventure is designed to familiarize you with the Research Library (YRL). You must complete this assignment and upload it to the BruinLearn site by February 9, 2025.

Enjoy your trip!

PART I:

What is the room all the way to the left after you enter YRL?

Go into that room and examine its holdings. Find an interesting volume and record its name here:

Have you ever used the kinds of materials held in this room? If so, how and for what? If not, what might you use them for?

How many ways can you find to check out a book at YRL? _____

What is it/what are they?

Where would you go to study with a group of people?

Can you borrow a laptop at YRL? If so, where?

PART II:

What library department do you see in front of you when you descend to the A level?

Find something else on the A level that is interesting to you. Describe it here:

Are there any other materials that you could use to conduct research on the A level? If so, what are they?

If you needed research help, could you find some on this level? If so, from whom would you find it and where?

PART III:

Find a map of the library. On what floor are books about history located? _____

Go to that floor and look around. Locate a history book that looks interesting and record the title and call number and then replace it:

Look at the books on the shelves above and below the book you selected. Do they appear to be on the same topic?

PART IV:

What kind of information can you get in the library that isn't available online?

Can you find the library's hours posted anywhere? If so, where?

What is/what would be your favorite place to study at YRL?
